

DEDICATION

This book is dedicated to Yakob Muskita, one of the world's few tarsier field biologists, who passed away on February 13, 2003, a few days before the workshop began, from complications of diabetes at the age of thirty-eight. He is survived by his wife and two children.

Yopie Muskita, on his wedding day, in Batuputih, North Sulawesi, gateway to Tangkoko Nature Reserve. Photo Myron Shekelle (c) 1996.